

All-Star Basketball Big Man / Perimeter Camp

July 5-9 High School Players ages 14-18

Big Man Camp

The second annual All-Star Big Man Camp is geared for the serious post players who want to take their game to the next level. The camp will focus on post position and moves with back to the basket as well as face up moves. The camp will also teach shooting fundamentals, offensive and defensive rebounding technique, and post player ball handling instruction. The Big Man Camp will give you the tools to continue improving long after the week of camp is over.

Camp Features:

Post Position and Back to the Basket Moves /
Face Up moves and Jump Shot Technique /
Offensive and Defensive Rebounding Technique
Shot Blocking and Outlet Passing Instruction /
Personalized DVD with Beginning of Camp and End of Camp Footage

Perimeter Camp

The third annual All-Star Perimeter Camp is one of the top guard camps in Metro Detroit. This hard-hitting camp will focus on the fundamentals of what it takes to play the Point Guard, Shooting Guard and Small Forward positions at the High School and College Level. In true All-Star fashion, the Perimeter camp will provide you with instruction from college players and coaches.

Camp Features:

Shooting Fundamentals and Technique / Ball Handling and Passing Drills and Competitions /
Offensive Jab-Step Series/ Leadership and Communication development / Defensive posture and stopping dribble penetration / Personal DVD of each player with before and after shooting technique and instruction

The summer of 2010 will be the first year that the perimeter and big man camps will be held simultaneously. Players will receive detailed instruction by position in ball handling, shooting, passing, communication, rebounding and defense. Perimeter players and post players will drill independently for the majority of the camp and players will come together each night for league play to hone the skills being taught.

Madonna University's Men's Basketball Head Coach Noel Emehiser is director of the Perimeter and Big Man Camps. As a player at Madonna Emehiser set several career and single season records on his way to becoming the all-time leading scorer in school history. After completing his college career Emehiser played Professional Basketball in Europe for the Sporting Club of Braga in Portugal. The Staff for both Perimeter and Big Man camps will be made up of college coaches and players who have the skill and knowledge necessary to teach the next generation of varsity players.
